Former State Rep. Ana Rivas Logan endorses State Senator Dwight Bullard; Negative campaign against him has been “exceptionally untrue and unfair”

Miami – Former State Representative and School Board Member Ana Rivas Logan endorsed State Senator Dwight Bullard calling him “an honorable man who has served our community with distinction both as a school teacher and a state legislator.”

Rivas Logan had challenged Bullard in the Senate District 40 Democratic Primary and was not sure if she would endorse in the general election but the “unfair attacks” from Bullard’s opponent Representative Frank Artiles changed her mind.

Rivas Logan said, “I could no longer sit on the sideline and watch Artiles’ negative, dishonest campaign. He went so far as to call Dwight a terrorist. It’s ridiculous. When you see something like that, something completely unjust, you have to call it out.”

In addition to endorsing Bullard, Rivas Logan issued a robo call and will also be campaigning for Bullard in the final days of the election. “This election is too important. Artiles has shown himself as unfit to serve in the State Senate. We need to re-elect Dwight Bullard and I plan on doing my part to make sure that happens,” Rivas Logan said.
