NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

SUBJECT:

Personal use of state plane for non-state business by Alex Sink, Chief Financial Officer (CFO) for the State of Florida ( hereinafter “Alex Sink” or “CFO“)

SUMMARY:

On multiple occasions Alex Sink has used her position as the Florida CFO to arrange for state planes to fly her husband and son on personal trips to and from family homes in Tampa and Tallahassee at the expense of Florida taxpayers.

On at least one occasion, the state’s CFO, flew the state plane on the first leg of a flight with a destination for a vacation to the Bahamas. These flights are illegal as they are contrary to Section 287.17, Florida Statutes; as they also constitute misuse of public position for personal gain under Section 112.313(6), Florida Statute, i.e., Florida’s Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees.

The following are the noted travel by Alex Sink in violation of the Florida law.

A. April 4, 2007 - Alex Sink used state plane as Florida’s CFO to fly her husband Bill McBride from Miami to the Sink-McBride residence in Tampa, Florida

On April 4, 2007, the State of Florida’s CFO, Alex Sink used the State of Florida aircraft to fly her and her husband Bill McBride from Miami to Tampa for the purposes of dropping her husband off in Tampa where Sink and McBride own a home, before the state’s CFO resumed her flight to Tallahassee once husband was off the state plane. See State of Florida Flight Records. (Attachment “A”)

The state records do not reflect that Alex Sink, as CFO conducted any state business while the plane was on the ground in Tampa for approximately the 15 minutes it took for her husband to get off the state plane. See Alex Sink’s CFO official schedule (Attachment “B”)

B. June 13, 2007 - Alex Sink used state plane as Florida's CFO to fly her son Bert McBride from Tampa to Tallahassee

On June 13, 2007, the State of Florida's CFO, Alex Sink used the State of Florida aircraft to fly her and her staff from Orlando to Tampa where on the stop in Tampa, the CFO picked up her son Bert McBride, before the state's CFO resumed her flight to Tallahassee with son on board the state plane. See State of Florida Flight Records. (Attachment "C")

State records do not reflect that Alex Sink as the state's CFO conducted any state business in Tampa while the plane was on the ground for approximately the 10 minutes that it took her son to board the state plane. Furthermore, the CFO's official schedule for June 13, 2007 includes the following entry:

"1:30pm - 3:30pm Depart for FBO -- Wheels up for Tallahassee Wheels down in Tally 3:23 pm (stopping in Vandenberg -- pick up Bert)" See Alex Sink's CFO official schedule (Attachment "D")

The Vandenberg private airport is 7.6 miles from the State of Florida's CFO Sink-McBride residence in Thonotosassa, Florida.

C. On October 30, 2008 - Alex Sink used state plane as Florida's CFO to fly her husband Bill McBride from Boca Raton to the Sink-McBride residence in Tampa

On October 30, 2008, the State of Florida's CFO, Alex Sink used the State of Florida aircraft to fly her and her husband McBride from Boca Raton to stop in Tampa, where Alex Sink and Bill McBride own a home, in order to drop her husband off in Tampa, before the state's CFO resumed her flight to Tallahassee once her husband got off the state plane. See State of Florida Flight Records. (Attachment "E") The CFO, then flew the State of Florida aircraft to Tallahassee.

State records do not reflect that Alex Sink as the state's CFO conducted any state business in Tampa while the plane was on the ground for approximately the 5 minutes that it took her husband to get off the state plane. See Alex Sink's CFO official schedule (Attachment "F")

D. January 9, 2009 - Alex Sink used state plane as Florida's CFO to fly her husband Bill McBride from Tampa to Tallahassee

On January 9, 2009 the State of Florida's CFO, Alex Sink used the State of Florida aircraft to fly her and her staff from West Palm Beach to stop in Tampa, where Alex Sink and Bill McBride own a home, in order to pick up her husband Bill McBride, before the state's CFO resumed her flight to Tallahassee once her husband boarded the plane. See State of Florida Flight Records. (Attachment "G")

State records do not reflect that Alex Sink as the state's CFO conducted any state business in Tampa while the plane was on the ground for approximately the 20 minutes that it took her husband to board the state plane. See Alex Sink's CFO official schedule (Attachment "H")

E. March 7, 2008 - Alex Sink used state plane as Florida's CFO to fly her from Miami to Fort Lauderdale on the first leg of a flight with a destination for a vacation to the Bahamas

On March 7, 2008 the State of Florida's CFO, Alex Sink used the State of Florida aircraft to fly her from Miami to Fort Lauderdale to connect on a commercial flight with a destination to the Bahamas, where Alex Sink's husband Bill McBride owns a condominium. See State of Florida Flight Records. (Attachment "I")

State records do not reflect that Alex Sink as the state's CFO conducted any state business in Fort Lauderdale on March 7, 2008. See Alex Sink's CFO official schedule (Attachment "J")

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

1. Section 287.17, Florida Statutes

“... aircraft . . . owned, leased, or operated by any state agency . . . Shall be available for official state business only. . .” [emphasis added], Section 287.17, F.S.

CFO Alex Sink’s use of the state aircraft to fly her, her husband Bill McBride and her son Bert to their residence in Tampa, Tallahassee, and the Bahamas, is a clear violation of sec. 287.17, F.S. because CFO Alex Sink’s use of the state aircraft in those noted and documented instances were not conducted for official state business.

2. Section 287.175, Florida Statutes

This section states that a violation of sec. 287.17, F.S., “. . . constitutes misuse of public position as defined in sec. 112.313(6), F.S., i.e., Florida’s Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees; and is punishable as provided in sec. 112.317, F.S.” [emphasis added]

3. Section 112.317, Florida Statutes

This section states “[I]n addition to any criminal penalty or any other civil penalty involved” violations “may be punished by, one or more of the following:

(a) In the case of a public officer:

1). Impeachment, 2). Removal from office, 3). Suspension from office, 4). Public censure and reprimand, 5). Forfeiture of no more than one-third salary per month for no more than 12 months, 6). A civil penalty not to exceed $10,000, 7). Restitution of any pecuniary benefits received because of the violation committed. The commission may recommend that the restitution penalty be paid to the agency of which the public officer was a member or to the General Revenue Fund.”

CONCLUSION

The conduct of the State of Florida’s CFO Alex Sink is in violation of the law and her conduct constitutes an abusive unauthorized use of state aircraft. It is egregious for the State’s CFO to engage in such misuse at the expense of the State of Florida’s taxpayers when the CFO of the state is responsible for reporting suspected misuse of state aircraft. See Sec.287.175, F.S. “The Chief Financial Officer shall report incidents of suspected misuse to the Commission on Ethics . . .”

I therefore respectfully request that the Florida Commission on Ethics investigate these matters and enter an appropriate order under Florida Law.
